I-Pool is a co-funded Erasmus+ Project, KA2, focused on the development and uses of Open Educational Resources for low-skilled adults. Ref. Num 2016-1-RO01-KA204-024403

Testing Phase

During Spring 2018, the I-Pool testing phase was held in partner countries (Romania, Germany, Spain, Poland and Italy) with more than 250 learners and 50 trainers of Adult Education Institutions. The general feedback was very positive and constructive. The project partners will be able to implement some final improvements received from the feedback given by the target groups.

Tools available on the project website

RESULTS OF THE PROJECT

The main aim of the project is to increase the level of proficiency in those above-mentioned skills among low educated adults from Romania, Poland, Germany, Spain and Italy. To achieve this goal, the project partners established that they will:

- OPEN EDUCATIONAL RESOURCES
make an analysis of existing Open Educational Resources (OER) and good practices supporting the educational process of low skilled adults;
- INTERACTIVE POOL
develop Interactive Pool (package) of those tools in a form of on-line database, allowing for categorisation and assessment of existing tools and addition of new ones, as well as making recommendation for other users;
- GUIDE TO INTERACTIVE POOL
write the Guide to Interactive Pool, so that users would be able to use it independently;
- DISSEMINATION OF THE OUTCOMES
disseminate the outcomes in order to assure their exploitation also in other European countries and different fields of education.

The website it will also guide you to an interactive guide to the I-Pool database where OER tools from all over Europe are collected and can be filtered according to the individual needs. So it will be possible to provide tailor-made tools for improving Key Competences to all adult learners.
