The DARE Practical Guide for Inclusion is now available in 5 languages!

The DARE Practical Guide for Inclusion is the first of the four outputs that has been developed within the DARE partnership. The primary target groups of the DARE Guide are European experts in (international) youth work as well as youth organizations that aspire to make youth work more inclusive. The DARE Guide comprises an introduction to inclusive international youth work. Its five chapters delve into the basic principles and practical approaches that support youth workers in making their activities more inclusive. We hope that it will inspire many people involved in youth work to make their activities accessible to all young people.

DARE Practical Guide for Inclusion

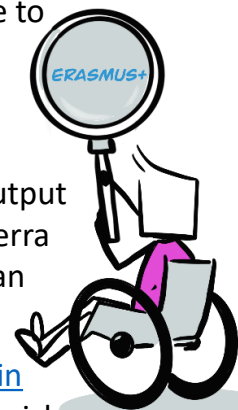

The DARE Digital Storytelling Handbook of Empowerment has been launched!

The DARE Digital Storytelling Handbook of Empowerment introduces the concepts of peer support and youth empowerment to foster inclusion in international youth exchanges. It is based on storytelling principles, which helps the reader reflect on new perspectives, therefore inviting a transformative and empathetic experience for young people with and without disabilities. This output presents young volunteers' skills that have already participated in international youth projects and would like to support anyone interested in joining Erasmus+ Youth Mobilities.

The positive feedback the partnership has received is proved by the fact that our DARE Digital Storytelling Handbook of Empowerment has been additionally translated into two more languages-Spanish and Romanian -so that this useful output can reach even more people. We want to thank Serena Borzoni and Mauricio Guerra de la Piedra for providing the Spanish version and Ovidiu Oniciuc for the Romanian version.

Join the DARE @disablethebarriers Discussion Group!

The DARE partnership is happy to announce that the DARE @disablethebarriers Discussion Group is now ready for you to join it! This discussion group provides a space for youth workers, trainers, educators, NGO members, training centers, young People with Visual, Hearing or Physical Impairments (PwVHPI), and young people in general, to connect and exchange ideas and information on how young PwVHPI can feel more empowered, be more involved in their communities and participate in international youth mobilities (and other EU-funded activities). It is an inclusive space where all ideas and suggestions are more than welcome. It also provides opportunities for networking and partnership building to implement future inclusive mobility projects that will involve everyone!

Feel free to invite all your friends, especially young PwVHPI, who are working on transforming communities into inclusive ones and share any insight or information you think is important towards DARE's goal!
